

Supporting young people beyond the hospital doors

Join our team of Hospital Navigator Volunteers at Milton Keynes University Hospital

Our award-winning Hospital Navigator Scheme provides the intervention needed to help young people move away from a life of violence and danger, to lead safer and healthier lives. This vital service is run by volunteers from within Milton Keynes University Hospital during the evenings and weekends.

WHO WE HELP

We are here to support anyone aged 13-35 experiencing violence of any kind, in addition to the following risk factors:

- Homelessness
- Unemployment/poverty
- Social isolation
- Self-harm/suicidal thoughts
- Substance misuse/alcoholism

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Our volunteers offer crucial assistance to young people by signposting to relevant support organisations and providing ongoing mentoring support in the community.
